Re: In re: New York City Policing During Summer 2020 Demonstrations, 1:20-CV-8924 (CM) (GWG)
This Letter Relates to All Cases

Dear Judge McMahon:

I write on behalf of Plaintiffs who are parties to the Injunctive Settlement to alert the Court to Plaintiffs' opposition that was filed at ECF No. 1160. For convenience, a copy is attached hereto.

The Court today advised the parties that the PBA's motion for a stay pending appeal would be decided based solely on the PBA's papers because Plaintiffs had not responded to that motion. (ECF No. 1163.) But Plaintiffs did file their opposition on March 8, 2024. (ECF No. 1160.)[1] Plaintiffs therefore respectfully request that the Court consider Plaintiffs' timely opposition to the pending motion to stay.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lillian Marquez

[1] Although Plaintiffs requested an extension of the March 8 deadline to file, as they did not receive a ruling on that motion before the deadline, Plaintiffs filed their opposition on that date. This may have been cause for some confusion on the docket.
